Wins:

- 700+ attendees (not including vendors, volunteers, staff)
- Stead stream of people
- Multiple ages, etc.
- Petting Zoo and Pony Rides were okay
 - Need to probably stick with who we have for pony rides and petting zoo vendors
 - Pony rides - easy going
- Recommend reaching out in October for vendors
- BBQ and Kona Ice -
 - Need to update Coco Shrimp contact info - Lindsey
- Trees very popular - probably need to have carts/etc. Tree advertising.
- Tamara King - bringing another person possibly? Announcements were quiet

Changes:

- Bottleneck near face painters and caricature
- Trees - move them to another place?
- Face Painters - Share overhang with Home Depot?
 - Put out a 6 foot table for face painters
- Move rain barrels near where people are walking in?
- Banner for rain barrels? Signage for rain barrels? Facebook post for rain barrels? Scheduled announcements? Sandwich board?
- Move chairs closer to the food area
- Farmer's Market - limit types of vendors?
- Open area under awning move some vendors to?
- Signs for volunteers with what people should do?
- Second wave of photos - backdrop for future? Photography booth as a vendor?
 - hashtag? for social media?
- Parking - make sure they wear safety vest. Parking on the street. Safety - police parked near front?
- American Carton - need to look at partnering next year
- Breakfast? Coffee? Checklist created in February / March for Earth Day - day of.
